TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B
SUNDAY, 7TH OCT 2018

It is not easy to be a Christian in today's world. When Jesus says to us, 'Unless you become like little children you will not enter the Kingdom of heaven,' he is recalling to us our lost childhood. We have to distinguish between being childlike and childish.

Nothing is easier as life goes on, than to grow old in heart, dry and disillusioned, cynical and selfish. Children put us in touch with the center and more innocent part of ourselves, that we have discarded in the battle for life. Children teach us how to live. They have not yet got into grooves, or have become prisoners of routine, habit, and prejudice.

Unfortunately what tends to happen is we lose some of the good qualities of the child and keep some of the worst. We cease to be childlike but continue to be childish.

Let us reflect for a moment on the fact that we don't always speak and act in a way that builds up community.

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020 – LISTEN TO WHAT THE SPIRIT IS SAYING.

Pope Francis has approved the Australian Bishops' decision to hold a Plenary Council in Australia in 2020 and 2021. It is a significant moment for the Church in Australia to make decisions about the future.

To prepare the agenda for the Plenary Council, all of God's people are invited to reflect on the question: "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?" Find out more about the Plenary Council 2020 at the new website, now online: www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

LITURGY: DID YOU KNOW.

PREPARATION OF GIFTS: After the Universal Prayer at Mass, the gifts that will become the Lord's Body and Blood are brought to the Altar. The preparation of the gifts ends when the priest says the "Prayer over the Gifts".

PREFACE: (Latin praefatio, a saying beforehand.) The prayer of praise and thanksgiving that introduces the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass. It ends with the Acclamation, "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord...". The preface often recalls the feast being celebrated or the Liturgical Season of the year and so acts as an introduction to the Eucharistic Prayer.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER: That part of the Mass that begins with the Preface, after the "Holy, Holy, Holy..." and ends with the Great Amen just before the Our Father.

The Eucharistic Prayer contains prayers of praise, thanksgiving, Acclamation, the words of Consecration, prayers of remembrance for the living and the dead and prayers of offering.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

FIRST READING

Gen 2:18-24

A reading from the book of Genesis

They were two in one flesh.

The Lord God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helpmate.' So from the soil the Lord God fashioned all the wild beasts and all the birds of heaven. These he brought to the man to see what he would call them, each one was to bear the name the man would give it. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild beasts. But no helpmate suitable for man was found for him. So the Lord God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And while he slept, he took one of his ribs and enclosed it in flesh. The Lord God built the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. The man exclaimed:

'This at last is bone from my bones,
and flesh from my flesh!
This is to be called woman,
for this was taken from man.'

This is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 127. R. v.5

(R.) May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

1. O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!
By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper. (R.)
2. Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
in the heart of your house;
your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table. (R.)
3. Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion
in a happy Jerusalem
all the days of your life!
May you see your children's children.
On Israel, peace! (R.)

SECOND READING

Heb 2:9-11

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

He who sanctifies, and those who are sanctified have one origin.

We see in Jesus one who was for a short while made lower than the angels and is now crowned with glory and splendour because he submitted to death; by God's grace he had to experience death for all mankind.

As it was his purpose to bring a great many of his sons into glory, it was appropriate that God, for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists, should make perfect, through suffering, the leader who would take them to their salvation. For the one who sanctifies, and the ones who are sanctified, are of the same stock; that is why he openly calls them brothers.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

cf. 1 Jn 4:12

Alleluia, alleluia!
If we love one another,
God will live in us in perfect love.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mk 10:2-16

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark

What God has joined together, no one must divide.

Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.' Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them, 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.'

People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.' Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.
