

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR C
SUNDAY, 10 FEB 2019

Today's Gospel tells the story of the miraculous catch of fish and the call of Peter to share in the work of Christ. Peter knew how to fish, but today he is down on his luck. But Peter was about to have a new experience.

Jesus called Peter and the others to a new role. This role had nothing to do with their adequacy or worthiness to do it. Peter's role of "catcher of people," his being chosen from among his companions, was a free gift of the Son of God.

Each and every one of us has a similar call to "put out into the deep for a catch." We also experience that we are not prepared, and we feel that we are not worthy. Neither of those thoughts should carry the day. God chooses whomever he wills for what needs to be done, to bring forth the reign of God. Peter was painfully aware of his shortcomings and unworthiness, and each of us is in a similar situation. But the call of God should be enough.

And so we put out into the deep for a catch that will increase the reign of God.

DID YOU KNOW?

4. MUSIC IN SUNDAY CELEBRATIONS OF THE WORD:

#50. Music has the capacity to act as a vehicle for God's self-revelation. Singing is a principal expression of the people's full and active participation in the Liturgy.

#51. A Sunday Celebration of the Word gives priority to the people's singing of the processional song for the Enthronement of the Word, The Responsorial Psalm, the Gospel Acclamation, The Acclamation during the Proclamation of Praise. In a Sunday Celebration of the Word with Communion, also important is the assembly's song that accompanies the Communion procession.

That being said it is evident that the emphasis for music is on the actual parts of the Liturgy, with music to accompany procession (movement).

In Sunday Liturgy, we sing:

- * a short Gathering Hymn.
- * The Gloria if used.
- * The Enthronement of the Word (Procession of the Book)
- * The Psalm response.
- * The Gospel Acclamation
- * The response to the Prayer of Praise.
- * The Procession to Communion.

The Book of the Rite is very clear about the end of the Service. After the Dismissal, where we are dismissed to go forth and live what we have just shared,

The Book says:

Recessional Music: As the congregation is leaving (there is no procession) music may be played, but a congregational hymn is not appropriate.

We have been celebrating Sunday Liturgy of the Word for a long time. It is important that we evaluate our celebration occasionally and reflect on how we are following the direction of the Rite as well as our Bishops and Diocese.

I think we are doing very well, with the help and commitment of many people.

We must always remember that we are not celebrating Mass, and if we feel that there is something more we need- we have achieved our goal. The more we are seeking is the Mass, and we are not trying to replace it, just prepare to receive it joyfully, and more fully, next time.

HELP COMBAT MISUNDERSTANDING AND MISREPRESENTATION.

For any of us, a sudden personal or health crisis can cause great hardship and put pressure on family life. But for some people who lack the necessary economic resources or social support, such crises can lead to homelessness.

Social Justice Statement 2018–2019, p. 7

How often do we hear calls to 'clean up the streets' or people in need being dismissed as 'lazy', 'irresponsible' or worse? Do councils and neighbourhoods always welcome proposals for shelters or facilities for homeless people? Challenge the myths that further marginalise people experiencing homelessness. Challenge the myth that homelessness will always be with us. Homelessness can be solved.

Consider hosting a Table Talk or Kitchen Table, a series of talks from experts and people who have a lived experience of homelessness or housing insecurity.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME —YEAR C

FIRST READING

Is 6:1-8

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Here am I! Send me.

In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord seated on a high throne; his train filled the sanctuary; above him stood seraphs, each one with six wings.

And they cried out to one another in this way,

'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.
His glory fills the whole earth.'

The foundations of the threshold shook with the voice of the one who cried out, and the Temple was filled with smoke. I said:

'What a wretched state I am in! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips
and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have looked at the King, the Lord of hosts.'

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding in his hand a live coal which he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. With this he touched my mouth and said:

'See now, this has touched your lips,
your sin is taken away,
your iniquity is purged.'

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying:

'Whom shall I send? Who will be our messenger?'

I answered, 'Here I am, send me.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 137:1-5. 7-8. R. v.1

(R.) In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

1. I thank you, Lord, with all my heart,
you have heard the words of my mouth.
Before the angels I will bless you.
I will adore before your holy temple. (R.)
2. I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you.
On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul. (R.)
3. All earth's kings shall thank you when they hear the words of your mouth.
They shall sing of the Lord's ways;
'How great is the glory of the Lord!' (R.)
4. You stretch out your hand and save me, your hand will do all things for me.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands. (R.)

SECOND READING

1 Cor 15:3-8, 11

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

In the first place, I taught you what I had been taught myself, namely that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the scriptures; that he was buried; and that he was raised to life on the third day, in accordance with the scriptures; that he appeared first to Cephas and secondly to the Twelve. Next he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died; then he appeared to James, and then to all the apostles; and last of all he appeared to me too; it was as though I was born when no one expected it. But what matters is that I preach what they preach, and this is what you all believed.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 4:19

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come follow me, says the Lord,
and I will make you fishers of my people.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Lk 5:1-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

They left everything and followed him.

Jesus was standing one day by the lake of Gennesaret, with the crowd pressing round him listening to the word of God, when he caught sight of two boats close to the bank. The fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats – it was Simon's – and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, 'Put out into deep water and pay out your nets for a catch.' 'Master,' Simon replied 'we worked hard all night long and caught nothing, but if you say so, I will pay out the nets.' And when they had done this they netted such a huge number of fish that their nets began to tear, so they signalled to their companions in the other boat to come and help them; when these came, they filled the two boats to sinking point.

When Simon Peter saw this he fell at the knees of Jesus saying, 'Leave me Lord; I am a sinful man.' For he and all his companions were completely overcome by the catch they had made; so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. But Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on it is men you will catch.' Then, bringing their boats back to land, they left everything and followed him.
